Gary misses hanging out with all of his friends at Nippert Stadium for FC Cincinnati matches, so he wants to know if you could take him on an adventure with you this week!

To take Gary on adventure:

1. Print him out
2. Color him Orange & Blue
3. Carefully cut him out
4. Take him with you on all your adventures this week!
Gary is super excited for all the adventures you will take him on this week. At the end of the week, be sure to draw a picture of your favorite adventure with Gary and write about it below.
Summer is almost here! Set a goal you want to accomplish by the end of summer. Whether you want to learn a new skill or read 20 books, write them down here and keep working at them!
